Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1905.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

3,400

If the government can cut off several yards of "red tape" there will undoubtedly be just as good results, and it will save lots of unwinding.

The ratio of sixteen girls to one boy in the graduating class of the high school is all out of proportion. Why not give the boys an education?

In spite of the fact that some people maintain that Montpelier is not many leagues removed from the hot place, they are still thawing out frozen water pipes down there.

The state's attorney of Windsor county, who got his sister into Mary Rogers' cell for a newspaper write-up, has yet to put in his word. We are waiting to hear what he's got to say in his own defense.

As a bit of practical training the ten days' march of the Norwich University cadets over a distance of 85 miles was of great benefit. In the military line the march was of more real consequence than weeks of drill.

The Boston American tried to keep up with the Boston Journal by reporting that Governor Bell had ordered two tickets for the execution of Mary Rogers. These two papers are running neck and neck in this case, with the yellow odds in favor of neither.

For a real ripe melo-drama, that bit of stage work done by the St. Albans women who threw herself in front of the engine driven by the man who didn't show proper appreciation of her affections takes the center of the boards. And the climax was there, too, when the engine was stopped just at the proper moment and the woman was rescued from her position. Some aspiring dramatist might see a world of possibility in this lurid type of the dramatic.

A special city meeting has been called for Monday evening next to see if the city will vote to levy a special tax of 15 cents to pay off one of the fire station notes, to see if the city will vote to raise money to pay off the floating indebtedness of the city, and to see if the city will vote to authorize the city council to borrow money in anticipation of this year's taxes. The fire station note mentioned in the first article is for $9,666.66 and is due Feb. 1, 1906. The notes on the Mathewson school house fall due June 1st. The one for $7,000, due June 1, 1905, has been paid out of current funds, and the next one for $7,000 falls due June 1, 1906. These are the matters that will come up for consideration, and there should be a good attendance of taxpayers.

THIRTY-FIVE TRUE BILLS.

Caledonia County Grand Jury Break All Previous Records.

St. Johnsbury, June 17.—The Caledonia county grand jury completed its work yesterday after a session of nine days. The session was a record breaker, 26 cases have been acted upon, 35 true bills were found, the majority of them growing out of liquor prosecutions. Nearly 200 witnesses were summoned. The names of the persons indicted have not been made public as no arrests have yet been made. George W. Bridgman of Hardwick was the foreman.

EAST BARRE.

There will be degree work at the N. E. O. P. meeting, June 19, and all are urged to be present. Summit Lodge of Graniteville will work the degree. For order, Lillian Hutchins.

Gill lodge, I. O. O. F. of East Barre, will hold their memorial exercises in their hall, next Sunday, June 18, at 2.30 p. m. The Rev. W. A. Kimrie of Barre will deliver the address. Good song service will be part of the exercises. Everyone cordially invited to be present.

The Loal Banner union, met with Mrs. Addie Waterman. After the usual opening, selections were read by different members, followed by a general discussion of the work and its interest. We were entertained by our hostess in her usually genial manner, which all who have been there know so well, and departed for home feeling that "it had indeed been good to be there." Our next meeting, it is expected, will be with Mrs. Vern Tomlinson, on July 7th.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

WOULDN'T YOU?

I do not care what others do; let them the simple life pursue.
As they have oft been counseled to by scholars.

But not for me the simple life; I'd rather breast the wordly strife
Accompanied by a million tainted dollars.

—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Forced to It.

Tomson—Robson tells the most impossible fish stories.

Johnson—Of course! Fish stories wouldn't be worth listening to if they weren't impossible.—Detroit Free Press.

A NICE JOB.

I wish I were a soda clerk
A-handing out the fizz;
I think it is the nicest work
Of any work there is.
He gets a smile from every lass,
And likewise gets her pelf,
And every time he draws a glass
He takes a glass himself.

The girls on him just fairly dote,
They hard to please him try;
They laud his lovely barkeep's coat
And for his favor vie.
All day they hang around this chap,
And near the fountain lurk;
Oh, it must be a perfect snap
To be a soda clerk!

—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Had Seen It All.

An old ducky was watching the G. A. R. parade on Decoration Day and was vociferously cheering the band.
"I suppose you were through the Civil War, uncle!" said a bystander.
"Ever' step of it, suh!"
"At the surrender, too?"
"Ever' step of it, suh!"
"What did Gen. Lee say to Grant?"
"Never said nuttin', suh—des chopped off his head an' went on!"—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A TRIFLIN' DAY.

Only jes' a triffin' day,
When the birds is singin' gay
To the sky so mild an' blue—
River is a singin', too.
Whisperin' breezes softly blow
Through the branches bendin' low.
Nothin' much to do nor say—
Only jes' a triffin' day.

Far across the distant hill
Sounds the engine whistle shrill,
Tellin' 'bout the busy life
With its bustle an' its strife.
Some folks say the toil an' pain
Aren't worth the joys we gain.
I don't ask no better pay—
Only jes' a triffin' day.

—Washington Star.
